

Please find below further information on the use of personal data by Credit Europe Bank N.V. This statement has been drawn up for businesses. The privacy statement for private individuals is available on the Credit Europe Bank's website.

Personal data is any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person such as of a(n) ultimate beneficial owner, director, person with signing authority or other contact person of the (potential) customer. Customers are kindly requested to supply this privacy statement to such natural persons whose personal data are or may be processed by Credit Europe Bank.

Purposes of data processing

Personal data will be processed by Credit Europe Bank for the purposes of ensuring the efficiency and effectiveness of its business operations, and, in particular, for the following activities:

- a the assessment and acceptance of customers and potential customers, the conclusion and performance of contracts with a customer and the settlement of payment transactions;
- b the analysis of personal data for statistical and scientific purposes;
- c the performance of (targeted) marketing activities designed to establish a relationship with a potential customer and/or maintain or extend a relationship with a customer, including sending marketing information about products and/or services that may be of interest to the customer or potential customer;
- d the safeguarding of the security and integrity of the financial sector, including the identification, prevention, investigation, and combating of conduct or attempted conduct (punishable or reprehensible) directed against the industry to which Credit Europe Bank belongs, the group to which Credit Europe Bank belongs, Credit Europe Bank, its customers, potential customers, and its staff, as well as the use of, and participation in, warning systems;
- e compliance with statutory obligations; and/or
- f the management of a relationship with a customer or potential customer.

When carrying out these activities, Credit Europe Bank may employ other companies, both in and outside the bank. These companies may be based in countries outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") that do not offer privacy protection comparable to that offered by countries within the EEA pursuant to the European Data Protection Directive 95/46/EC. For the purposes of executing payment instructions, personal data may also be exchanged with recipients who are based in countries outside the EEA. Intermediaries and/or data processing centres may be based in various locations worldwide. Both during and following the processing of personal data, the data may be the subject of investigation by the competent national authorities and/or competent supervisory authorities of the countries where this data is held.

In order to protect personal data, Credit Europe Bank has made the necessary contractual arrangements and complies with applicable laws, rules and regulations (including the Dutch Personal Data Protection Act (Wet bescherming persoonsgegevens) and the Code of Conduct on the Processing of Personal Data by Financial Institutions (Gedragscode Verwerking Persoonsgegevens Financiële Instellingen)).
